

“Christy’s Wish”

Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship has been set up in memorial of Christy Crow, Friendswood High School Alum '12, after her untimely passing in 2014.

Christy was an incredibly gifted musician, artist and singer and, was an active member of the Friendswood High School Choir. After graduating, she began her studies at Texas A&M University where she was set to graduate in 2016 with Bachelor’s Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies. Her ultimate goal after high school was to become an Aggie, and educate and positively influence the lives of many young students throughout her career.

The Crow Family created this scholarship to honor a student who will be actively pursuing a degree in Education
