Personal Statement

On a separate sheet of paper, in more than 250 words but less than 500 words, describe yourself as a person and discuss your future life plans. Discuss why you will need this scholarship.

Statement To Applicants

The Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. scholarship in honor of Ennis E. Williams recognizes a student who has demonstrated strong scholastic ability with the promise to show leadership for the future. All applicants will be considered by the established criteria.

Ennis E. Williams Jr was a lifelong educator and educational administrator within the Galveston Independent School District. He served in many roles to include a community activist, a community organizer, and a community leader. Mr. Williams touched the lives of all persons he met by showing encouragement and positivity. The Gamma Pi Lambda Chapter chooses to recognize a high school graduate from Galveston to honor the legacy of our beloved and distinguished Brother.
